STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Conversion in its very essence involves an act of undermining one's faith. The process becomes all the more objectionable when it is brought about by taking recourse to methods like allurements, force, fraud and exploitation of one's poverty. Conversion or attempt to conversion in the above manner, besides creating various mal-adjustments in social life also gives rise to problems of law and order and also indirectly impinge on the freedom of religion. It is therefore, expedient to provide for measures for checking such activities.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

Hence this Bill.

(2) Every order made under sub-section (1) shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before each House of the State Legislature.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Article 243-ZD of the Constitution of India provides for the constitution of the District Planning Committees by the State Government, at the district level in every State to consolidate the plans prepared by the Panchayats and the Municipalities in the district and to prepare a draft development plan for the district as a whole. The said article further provides that, not less than four-fifths of the total number of members of such Committee shall be elected by, and from amongst, the elected members of the Panchayat at the district level and of the Municipalities in the district in proportion to the ratio between the population of the rural areas and of the urban areas in the district. The said article also provides that, it will be for the State Legislature to provide, by law, with respect to composition of the District Planning Committees and the manner of filling the seats of such Committees. Accordingly, the Maharashtra District Planning Committees (Constitution and Functions) Act, 1998 (Mah. XXIV of 1998) has been enacted. Section 4 of the said Act provides that, one-third (including the number of seats reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Backward Class of Citizens) of the total number of seats to be filled-in by election from the urban area or rural area in a District Planning Committee shall be reserved for women.

2. Recently, the Government of Maharashtra has raised the percentage of reservation for women in the rural and urban local bodies in the State from one-third to one-half as the women population is around fifty per cent. On the similar lines, the Government considers it expedient to raise the reservation for women as the members of the District Planning Committees from existing "one-third" to "one-half" and for that purpose to amend section 4 of the Maharashtra District Planning Committees (Constitution and Functions) Act, 1998 (Mah. XXIV of 1998), suitably.

3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.
